

Thesis Restricted Access Application Form – Could prejudice an ongoing research project

Criteria

This restriction category is appropriate where your thesis includes results or data which are part of a broader ongoing research project at the University of Birmingham and release of those results could prejudice the impact or perceived originality of future publications from that project team.

Limitations and requirements

- Max Embargo Period: 4 Years
- Extension Permitted: YES (on a per 12 month basis with approval from supervisor or project PI)
- Authorisation: Supervisor to complete declaration in Section 2
- Evidence Required: Details of the ongoing research project, it's anticipated duration and name/contact details of the Principle Investigator (PI). Include an overview of why release of the thesis would be detrimental at this stage.

By signing this form I confirm that:

1. It is necessary that my thesis is embargoed and it meets the criteria laid out in Section 2
2. I have fully completed section 1 and section 2 of this form and obtained the required authorisation
3. My request is compliant with the requirements of all funders acknowledged in my thesis
4. I understand that Library Services will calculate the embargo end date based on the last day of the month of my degree congregation plus the embargo duration I have specified in Section 2
5. I understand that unless I have indicated copy requests can be approved by Library Services:
 - a. While under embargo the thesis will not be shared with anyone (including my supervisor) without the express permission of myself (or a person I have optionally nominated under Section 2)
 - b. Library Services will contact me and/or a person I have nominated to consider any requests for access to my thesis. If I do not respond within 28 working days, such requests will be denied.
6. I have provided an email address that will remain active and be checked regularly following my graduation.
7. I understand that my thesis will become publicly accessible via the eTheses repository on the day following the embargo end date unless I have made a successful extension request at least 28 days prior to the embargo end date.
8. I understand that to facilitate its deposit and preservation in accordance with University regulations, a limited number of Library Services staff will have access to my thesis irrespective of any embargo imposed.
9. The personal information I have provided in this form will be held by the University for the duration of the embargo, plus 1 year.
10. I understand that I can request the early termination of an embargo should circumstances change. To do so, please contact ubira@contacts.bham.ac.uk
